

Getting to City of Rocks National Reserve:

Airports:

- Salt Lake City International Airport - 4 hrs driving distance to the COR
- Reno-Tahoe International Airport in Reno, NV - 8 hrs driving distance
- Jackson Hole Airport in Jackson, WY - 4 hrs driving distance
- Idaho Falls Regional Airport - 2 hrs driving distance

Directions:

The City of Rocks is located in south central Idaho, south of Interstate I-86, West of Interstate I-86, and North of Interstate I-80. Below is a link with driving directions:

<http://www.nps.gov/ciro/planyourvisit/directions.htm>

The Visitor Center is located in Almo, ID, and the rock formations are only minutes outside the town.

How to get to the Almo, ID:

Driving from Boise: take I-84 East to exit 216 (Declo); go south on Highway 77 to Conner Creek Junction (stop sign); then turn right (west) on Highway 77 Spur to Almo. The visitor center and the park entrance are south of the post office and businesses.

Driving from Pocatello: take I-86 West to I-84 West to exit 216 and proceed as above.

Driving from Salt Lake City: take I-84 west to exit 245 (Sublette) , turn left and go west to Malta. From Malta take Highway 77 to Conner Creek Junction, continuing straight west through the junction the Highway becomes 77 Spur. Take Highway 77 Spur to Almo. The visitor center and the park entrance are south of the post office and businesses.

Car Rental / Carpooling:

A variety of car rental companies are available at all the airports - reserve online for the best price and selection. An email list of participants will be sent out ahead of time to help you coordinate travel schedules and carpooling options.

Basic information about the City of Rocks:

<http://www.nps.gov/ciro/planyourvisit/basicinfo.htm>

Where we stay - Camping:

Please note that the City of Rocks clinic is held in a remote location. Our campsites are #36,37 &38. All the campsites in the City of Rocks are dispersed throughout the park. Follow the brown park signs from Almo into the park by taking road 3075S South just past the Rock City Diner. This road turns to dirt right away. Follow the main road as shown on the attached map past a couple turns. If you pass the parking lot at Bath Rock, about 6-7 miles from the turn-off in Almo then you pass our sites on the right

Here is a map showing the camp numbers and locations to help you familiarize yourself with the park. <http://www.nps.gov/ciro/planyourvisit/upload/CIRO-Camping-Brochure-08-28-12.pdf>

Other lodging options in Almo, ID:

Almo Creek Inn www.almocreek.com

Groceries / Restaurants

Almo, ID is a very small town with 2 small stores, one of which sells gas, and one restaurant. It's best to do your grocery shopping and get your supplies before you arrive (for example in Idaho Falls, or Salt Lake City). There are no climbing gear stores, although you can find a few camping supplies.

Rock City Mercantile

3049 Elba-Almo Rd, Almo, ID 83312

Great pizza, brews, ice for the cooler, and all the necessities for weekend at the COR.

Tracy General Store

3001 Elba-Almo Rd, Almo, ID 83312

Gas & Food

Almo Creek Outpost

<http://www.almocreek.com/outpost/>

Steak house closed. Hotel is open